Pages 594-622

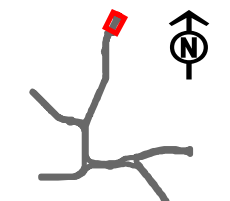

Resource location maps reflect the APE based on the current design presented on September 25-26, 2019. Properties surveyed under the APE presented in the approved research design on September 3 – 5, 2019 are included but distinguished from the properties which are in the current APE. All properties covered by present survey efforts retain their original survey number; properties covered under the 2004-2006 survey efforts are noted but not numbered.
